

Lenten Prayer and Reflection

The return of the prodigal son: The parable, the painting and you

There is a saying among storytellers that “the story begins when the teller stops talking.” Jesus was the master storyteller of parables. By their nature, parables are meant to stir us up and challenge us to change. We will take up this parable where Jesus left off.

Rembrandt, one of the greatest painters of European art, captures the feelings of Jesus’ story of the prodigal son on canvas. Writer, Henri Nowen, also captures Jesus’ story and its deeper meanings as he contemplates the painting.
